FIRST YEAR.

KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

Wide streamer—FAIR; BLUE—RAIN OR SNOW; With Black above—T'WLL WARMER SHOW. If BLACK'S BENEATH—COLDER T'WLL BE. Unless BLACK's showin' no change w'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 5 o'clock to-morrow evening.

GRAND FINALE—BOOM-TA-RA.
Bain's don't stand no chance at all,
Grandpa's hat has got the call,
Bent' the belt of this 'e' w'ell fall,
He's the man that swipes the hall
And fills the "dummys" full of gall.

Boon-boon, boom-boon,
"Mamma dear, where is my pa?"
The worst beat man you ever saw,
He's the man that swipes the hall,
Just to put his back arain,
Then the boy for home again,
Ben is here, "little Ben."

Ben is here—he's come to stay,
This is what the people say,
If some folks like to run his way,
As President's he's out of sight,
For Ben he'll sing and shout and fight,
And drink red beer till broad daylight.

Personal Points

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to let us know.

Captain W. L. Marshall of the U. S. A. and his wife have been visiting his father, Colonel Charles A. Marshall, near Washington.

Mrs. Lucetta Bierbower, accompanied by her grandson, Sam Bierbower, left last night for a visit to her daughter in Baltimore.

Miss Minnie Sneed of Louisville is in Lexington on a visit to friends; from there she will come to Maysville to spend the summer with friends and relatives.

Elias Collins, Jailer of Fleming, returned last night from the Minneapolis Convention, and he has THE LEDGER's thanks for a souvenir of the great show.

Miss Addie Ross arrived in Maysville Saturday evening home, Johnson Junction, from Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., and was the pleasant guest of Miss Ellis Wallace.

William H. Cox and Robert Fleckin returned from the Minneapolis Convention via Chicago, stopping a day in that city. They pulled in on an excursion train shortly before last midnight.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, JUNE 13, 1892.

ONE CENT.

WELL, HERE YOU ARE!

The Best Way to Have Standard Time is to Have It.

It didn't require an act of Congress to start the United States mails on standard time.

The railroads adopted a uniform time, and the mails had to move according to it or not move at all.

It doesn't require an ordinance of the City Council to notify a Maysvillian that if he wants to take a train on the C. & O. he must get to the Depot on standard time.

He must get there according to that time or get left.

It doesn't require a city ordinance to regulate the hours when one family shall go to bed, or get up, or have breakfast.

When a man goes to work, or sits down, or sits up, or whether his clock shall be half an hour faster or ten minutes slower than his neighbor's, are not matters for municipal regulation.

They are private affairs solely, and being such, each citizen can regulate them to suit himself.

Now, if the people of Maysville want to adopt standard time, all they have to do is to adopt it.

Just turn your clocks and watches twenty-six minutes backward.

And let the abortion of a "town clock" and the few old grannies tick and kick until they get tired.

The way to get standard time is to get it.

GEORGE Rose of Greenup county has been taken to the Asylum at Lexington.

The railway trestle across the Lime stone bottom has been greatly strengthened.

JUNIUS B. PARK, a Cincinnati travelling man, supposed to have about $60 in his clothes, is missing.

The date of the next annual meeting of the United Confederate Veterans, which will be held at Birmingham, has been fixed for July 19th, 1892.

THE Ladies' Mite Society of the M. E. Church will give an Ice Cream Supper Tuesday evening, June 14th, at the residence of Mrs. John Shepard.

MISS IDA MAY SMITH, daughter of John T. Smith, was awarded a gold pen for excellence in penmanship at the closing exercises of the Third District Public School.

THE Covington courts have sustained the Latonia Jockey Club in ruling off John Brannan for alleged complicity in the famous Polk Badger-Tanner swindle last fall.

THE great Eclipse stake, worth $20,000, was won at Morris Park Saturday by the Oneck Dr. J. B. Spratt, and so was much disgusted with his failure that he blew his own head off with the contents of a shotgun.

CARDINAL MANNING did not leave properly enough to pay his funeral expenses. Those amounted to $2,100; and to meet them a subscription was started among his relatives and intimate friends.

A SHREWISH confidence woman tried to work the Latonia bookmakers on the pia that her husband had lost $3,000 with them, and threatening suicide if she did not receive $300 of it, then dropping to a demand for $300.

THE great consolidation of a number of the smaller packing-houses of Chicago has been completed by the incorporation of the Consolidated Packing Companies, with a capital stock of $5,000,000.

Caity Shall Begin at Nine.

HERE'S a chance for some of our friends who are so solicitous for the healthen ten thousand miles away to do a little missionary work nearer home. The Advertiser tells of a man who, with two little girls, aged 4 and 6, respectively, walked two hundred miles to reach the railroad leading to that city. He had been living in Clay County, where his wife and three children died with diphtheria. He sold his boots to pay his way to Ashland on the railroad, and reached there barefoot, but those should be enough warrant the statement that it is not necessary to go outside of Kentucky to find good use for the money that is wasted abroad. If we were a betting person, it is dollars to doughnuts that this man couldn't tell whether the Saviour died on Calvary or in New York, but that he doesn't know the difference between the New Testament and Poor Richard's Almanac.

THE Secretary of the Treasury has directed the payment of the undeposited amount of the Rock Creek Park Award, amounting to $490,000. The payment of this award has been suspended for about two weeks at the request of Representative Holman.

Mrs. SARGEANT, proprietress of the hotel where a man succumbed a few days ago in Cincinnati, has attacked $1,800 found among his effects, to satisfy a claim of $100 for damages to the room which was covered with his blood. This may very properly be called "blood money."

ASHLAND expects to have the telephone by July 15th.

THE Lexington Chautauqua will open June 25th and close July 8th.

The electric cars will be running to the Fair Grounds by July 4th.

BENJAMIN BRANFORD, a prominent citizen of Owensboro, is dead at 73.

HENRY BARNEY lost one finger and had two others badly torn by a buzz saw at Ashland.

IT will soon be time to when your pocket book and hunt for the City Collector and Treasurer.

THE Art Loan Exhibition will be open day and night during the week. Admission 10 cents.

REV. FRED D. HALE of Louisville will begin a protracted meeting at the Paris Baptist Church to-night.

PETER LUCI, who closed his restaurant as noted by THE LEDGER, made an assignment to Clarence L. Sallee.

NEWPORT is to have a substantial addition to her architecture in the shape of a handsome $30,000 bank building.

J. D. SMITH of Paducah, Prohibition candidate for Congress in the First District, is making an active canvas.

COLONEL J. H. NORTHUP will open soon a number of coal mines on the new line of the Ohio and Sandy Railroad.

IN Cincinnati they have horse and mule, cable and electric power for drawing the street cars, and all on the same track.

THE Chesapeake and Ohio the fourth week in May earned $288,473, an increase over the last week in May, 1891, of $13,295.

D. J. SMITH of Paducah, Prohibition candidate for Congress in the First District, has made a fine practice in Cincinnati, was judged insane and sent to Longview Asylum.

BOND LODGE, I. O. O. F., of Dayton have on their list of members the oldest Oddfellow in Kentucky in the person of Uncle Billy Dokes.

THANKS to landlord J. K. Lloyd for an invitation to the opening hall at Yellow Springs Hotel, June 15th; but our wash-bill is due that day.

WILLIAM J. COOPER has been appointed receiver of the Globe Carrying Company, Cincinnati, for the purpose of winding up its affairs.

HILL & CO. HAVE THE LEDGER's thanks for the first water-melon of the season. It was blown into the sacrum Saturday by a strong prenny boy.

MRS. ANNA BARNES, who has been ill for some time at the old Gault homestead near Washington, has recovered and returned to her home at Maysville.

MATTHEW HARDISON of August 11 wed Miss Alice Gibbons Wednesday at 3 p. m. The prospective groom is a brother of Mrs. James W. Fitzgerald of this city.

AT Camargo George McCormick tried to pay Dr. J. B. Spratt, and so was much disgusted with his failure that he blew his own head off with the contents of a shotgun.

CARDINAL MANNING did not leave properly enough to pay his funeral expenses. Those amounted to $2,100; and to meet them a subscription was started among his relatives and intimate friends.

OUR DAILY MAIL

JOHN WALSH has secured a pension of $12 a month for Alfred Fristoe, father of John Fristoe, from August 29th, 1890.

REV. GEORGE S. EASTON brought suit in Covington to recover for personal goods lost on the Golden Rule. The goods were insured in his house, but as his wife and daughters had transferred them to the steamer, on which they were passengers, without the consent of the insurance company, the court held that the claim of Mr. Easton was not good. The lost goods were valued at $1,000.

On and after July 1st, paid locals will be inserted in THE LEDGER at 25 cents per line for each insertion.
